

NEWS RELEASE | SOURCE: Professional Systems Network International

RELEASED: 04/10/2010

Las Vegas, NV. – PSNI Stockholders Elect Officers

At the annual PSNI stockholders meeting held in conjunction with the National Association of Broadcasters Convention, Michael Landrum, Chief Executive Officer of Technical Innovation, LLC was elected President of PSNI for a two year term.

Ray “Tony” Stephens, former President of PSNI and President and General Manager of Professional Communications Systems located in Tampa, Florida ascended to Past-President and Membership Chairman for 2010-2011. Other officers elected include; Ingolf de Jong, President of General Communications, Salt Lake City, Utah, Vice-President; Bob Dungan, Principal and General Manager, Media Management, Dallas, Texas, Treasurer; Mark Gottwig, President of Delta AV, Portland, Oregon, Secretary; and Andy Sellers, Principal of Sensory Technologies, Indianapolis, Indiana was appointed to the position of Member-At-Large.

Michael Landrum, PSNI President
2010-2011

About PSNI (Professional Systems Network International)

PSNI represents a North American network of thirty-two independently owned affiliates that generate over $600 million in annual revenues with over 1,600 employees located in 60+ offices throughout North America. Founded in 1986, PSNI provides a forum for information exchange and problem solving, elevates public awareness of affiliates' capabilities, and offers a distinguishing standard of quality, integrity, customized service, and expertise. The PSNI Enhanced Service Network (ESN) offers expanded managed services support to participating PSNI affiliates as needed for clients located throughout North America.

For information regarding this press release contact:

Chris Miller, PSNI Executive Director
918.388.1343
cmiller@psni.org